POLICY CONDITIONS

This page applies to classification 3632 in ME as shown in the information page and classification schedule.

Estimated remuneration, class assignments, rates, and premium are subject to audit after the policy period.

The experience modification factor and schedule rating entry apply unless a state-specific endorsement provides otherwise.

Payroll records, job duties, certificates, and subcontractor information must be retained for rating verification.

No notice, inspection, or audit changes coverage unless an endorsement is issued and attached to the policy.

References to classification, remuneration, and rating basis include ME class code 3632 only for the state and operation shown in the information page.

Headings are included for ease of reading and do not alter statutory benefits, employers liability limits, audit rights, or state amendatory provisions.

If a state endorsement and a general condition address the same subject, the state-specific endorsement controls for the affected state.

The insured should retain payroll journals, tax filings, subcontractor certificates, job-duty records, and officer status records used to support the classification entries.

Classification summaries on one page do not replace the information page, payroll schedule, endorsement schedule, or premium audit statement.

A certificate, binder note, invoice, or producer correspondence item does not amend a payroll or class-code entry unless an endorsement is issued.

Final premium may require allocation of remuneration by state, governing class, officer status, overtime treatment, and subcontracted work records.

When a class code appears on multiple schedules, the state, item identifier, and effective date should be used to read the entries together.

SECTION A - RECORDS AND AUDIT

Separate records are required when an employee performs duties that may fall under more than one classification or more than one covered state.

If adequate records are not available, remuneration may be assigned to the highest rated applicable classification permitted by the rating rules.

SECTION B - STATE AND CLASSIFICATION CONDITIONS

State amendatory endorsements, statutory benefit provisions, and assigned-risk rules apply before any conflicting general condition in this policy packet.

A classification shown on a schedule is not a warranty that all operations at the insured location are limited to that class.

This page applies to classification 8810 in CT as shown in the information page and classification schedule.

Estimated remuneration, class assignments, rates, and premium are subject to audit after the policy period.

The experience modification factor and schedule rating entry apply unless a state-specific endorsement provides otherwise.

Payroll records, job duties, certificates, and subcontractor information must be retained for rating verification.

No notice, inspection, or audit changes coverage unless an endorsement is issued and attached to the policy.

References to classification, remuneration, and rating basis include CT class code 8810 only for the state and operation shown in the information page.

Headings are included for ease of reading and do not alter statutory benefits, employers liability limits, audit rights, or state amendatory provisions.

If a state endorsement and a general condition address the same subject, the state-specific endorsement controls for the affected state.

The insured should retain payroll journals, tax filings, subcontractor certificates, job-duty records, and officer status records used to support the classification entries.

Classification summaries on one page do not replace the information page, payroll schedule, endorsement schedule, or premium audit statement.

A certificate, binder note, invoice, or producer correspondence item does not amend a payroll or class-code entry unless an endorsement is issued.

Final premium may require allocation of remuneration by state, governing class, officer status, overtime treatment, and subcontracted work records.

When a class code appears on multiple schedules, the state, item identifier, and effective date should be used to read the entries together.

SECTION A - RECORDS AND AUDIT

The insured must keep payroll journals, tax filings, job-duty records, and contract labor records for Clerical office employees assigned to class code 8810 in CT.

The remuneration entry of $686,739 is an estimate for rating purposes and may be revised after audit without changing the coverage afforded by the policy.

Separate records are required when an employee performs duties that may fall under more than one classification or more than one covered state.

If adequate records are not available, remuneration may be assigned to the highest rated applicable classification permitted by the rating rules.

SECTION B - STATE AND CLASSIFICATION CONDITIONS

State amendatory endorsements, statutory benefit provisions, and assigned-risk rules apply before any conflicting general condition in this policy packet.

A classification shown on a schedule is not a warranty that all operations at the insured location are limited to that class.
